

An Introduction to the Financial System of the Jama'at

Ma'yar-e-Saghir

Majlis Atfalul Ahmadiyya USA

Allah Ta'ala says in the Holy Quran: “Never shall you attain to righteousness unless you spend out of that which you love; and whatever you spend, Allah surely knows it well.” Surah Al-Imran, Verse 93

Financial Sacrifice is a way to gain Allah's blessings and mercy. It also protects us from many harms and should be given daily or at least monthly according to the teachings of the Holy Prophet (saw) and Holy Quran.

Chanda is spending in the way of Allah for the functioning of Nizam e Jama'at (the organizational structure) and propagation of its message throughout the world.

What are some of the Financial Schemes in the Jama'at?

What are some of the Financial Schemes in the Jama'at?

Tehrik-e-Jadid:

donations used to spread the message of Islam Ahmadiyyat
to the corners of the Earth

Waqf-e-Jadi

donations used to train new Imams, who then teach children about religion, Quran and inform others about the beautiful message of Islam.

Wassiyat:

making a will of donating 1/10 to 1/3 of your wealth to the Jamaat at the time of one's death. Funds are used for propagation of Islam, publishing religious books, helping orphans, poor and needy people.

Atfal Chanda:

(Mandatory for all Atfal)

Eid Fund:

the practice of offering Eid fund exists since the time of Promised Messiah^(as). The purpose is so that as a person spends money on clothes, food, gatherings and gifts etc., on all happy occasions like Eid, one should bear in mind the requirements of faith and religion.

Chanda Jalsa Salana:

An obligatory donation [chanda] towards all sorts of expenses in connection with preparation and holding of Jalsa Salana, the annual convention.
