Conditions of Bai'at & Responsibilities of an Ahmadi

Condition 4

The Fourth Condition of Bai'at states:

- That under the impulse of any passions, he/she shall cause no harm whatsoever to the creatures of God in general and Muslims in particular, neither by his/her tongue, hands, nor any other means.

Condition 4 - Causing No Harm

It has been stated in the fourth condition that one should not cause harm to another person whether by one's hand or one's tongue or through any other means.

The Holy Prophet (sa) has stated, 'Do not be jealous.' Jealousy ultimately develops into enmity. A person who has jealousy in his heart always wants to harm the person of whom he is jealous. Jealousy is a type of disease that while it causes harm to the other person, it also consumes the person who is jealous.

Condition 4 - Causing No Harm

Then the Holy Prophet (sa) admonishes us not to quarrel with each other. Quarrels take place over small matters. We are then directed not to have enmity towards each other. Enmities start from petty matters. Hearts are filled with spite and malice.

Once a companion humbly asked the Holy Prophet (sa) to give him simple, but unforgettable advice in a few words. The Holy Prophet (sa) advised him to 'shun anger' and then again he said, 'shun anger.' When you keep in your mind that you should shun anger, then malice and spite will go away automatically.

Condition 4 - Causing No Harm

Then the admonishment is not to oppress anyone, not to think low of anyone, nor to derogate anyone. An oppressor never achieves nearness to Allah. Then, how is it possible that on the one hand one would enter into a pledge of allegiance with the one appointed by Allah to win His favour and on the other one would oppress people by snatching their rights.
